

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY BY EDGAR SNOWDEN.

ATLANTA, MORNING, DECEMBER 24, 1859.

An account is given in the New York Express, of the speeches lately made at a meeting of the Whig and American members of Congress, and others, recently held in Washington. The speeches were all in favor of a strong and deliberate policy. Mr. Butler and Mr. Stuart both have evidence to the state of feeling, irrespective of party, that prevailed in Virginia, in consequence of recent events. Mr. B. said that the invasion of Brown was but an incident of a deep plan, as would be shown to the country by the correspondence which would be published. Mr. Humphrey Marshall avowed his adherence to the national principles of the American party, and said that some position between the extremes ought to be taken and adhered to. Mr. Connel, of Louisiana, said "he had always been opposed to the Democratic party, but if compelled to decide between the two, should vote for the latter, on account of its more national sentiments. He desired to see both defeated, and if it were possible, to act with a party which would be in favor of the Union, the Constitution, and the Laws. He detested Southern lawlessness no less than Northern aggression, and there was no language too strong to use against that class of Southern politicians, who in violation of the Constitution, were in favor of the Southern Slave trade." Mr. Crittenden made a most eloquent appeal in favor of maintaining the Union. He concluded by saying: "Neither the Constitution nor the Union brings these troubles upon us, but the decision of certain citizens of the North. And I trust in God that John Brown's folly at Harper's Ferry may be instrumental for good, by arousing the North mind to the dangerous tendency of that delusion, and leading to its prompt correction by our Northern brethren themselves." The conclusion of the deliberations of the meeting, was, as stated yesterday, to refer the whole matter under consideration to a committee of seven, to confer with the Executive Committees of the Whigs and Americans, and with such other persons as are favorable to the formation of a National Party, on the basis of "the Union, the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws," and to report some plan for the formal inauguration of such a movement, and report to a subsequent meeting.

A letter from London, under the English Christmas of 1859, promises to be a happy one. Compliments are still showered upon us by our neighbors, the funds continue their upward movement, the profits of trade are larger and more steady than ever, bread is unprecedentedly cheap, and employment is general. Nevertheless, it must be remembered the Christmas season has so often, in history, been a season of gloom, that it would be rash to indulge in unmitigated confidence.

The pecuniary loss to Philadelphia by the secession of the Medical students will be heavy, the majority of the Southern students in Northern cities being children of wealthy parents and remarkably liberal in their expenditures. The disaffection is spreading throughout the entire North, and is not confined alone to medical students; the Southern pupils in several Northern Colleges have held meetings looking to an ultimate withdrawal from those institutions.

The difference which has existed between Senator Johnson, of Arkansas, and Hon. Thomas C. Hindehan, M.C. from that State, has been amicably and honorably adjusted. The many friends of these two gentlemen will learn with pleasure that all ground of misunderstanding between them has been removed by the mediation of Hon. Robert Toombs and Hon. Roger A. Pryor.

Leonard Scott & Co., New York, have republished the December number of Blackwood's Magazine. It has articles on the war in China, Popular Literature, and the Empire, &c., &c. Robt. Bell, Agent.

Mr. Millson, of the Norfolk district, in Congress, is a worthy and able gentleman. We would as soon see him Speaker of the House, as any Democrat in that body. He has frequently shown not only his abilities, but his independence.

Letter to Gov. Wise.

The subject is the reply of the Governor of Pennsylvania to the circular of Gov. Wise, addressed on the 25th ult. to the Governors of Maryland, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

PENNSYLVANIA EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 1, 1859.

Your letter of the 25th, having been received this morning, I am sorry to say that I cannot learn you were a citizen of Pennsylvania, nor was there any objection, which, you say, was "unintentionally" made by the Governor of this State, but in Maryland, or Virginia. In relation to Pennsylvania has done her duty. Virginia has no right to anticipate that she will not do so in the future.

The information you have received in regard to a conspiracy to rescue John Brown will, undoubtedly, be found in the sequel utterly and entirely without foundation, so far as Pennsylvania is concerned. Nor will we permit any portion of our territory, along our borders or elsewhere, to be made a depot of war upon our Southern neighbors. When that contingency shall happen, the constitutional and confederate duty of Pennsylvania shall be performed, and, under all circumstances, she will take care to see that her honor is fully vindicated. Wm. F. Packard, To His Excellency the Governor of Virginia, Richmond, Va.

Virginia News.

The Warrenton Flag says: "The Fauquier Black Horse Company reached Warrenton on Monday about 1 o'clock, on their return from Clintonville, and when they halted were greeted with three hearty cheers by our citizens for their gallant and patriotic bearing in the service of the State. Capt. Scott responded to the cheers in a few pertinent remarks on behalf of the Company, when an order from the Governor was read by Sergeant Smith to hold the horses in readiness for future service that they might be called upon to perform. They then returned their thanks to Maj. Wm. E. Gaskins for the admirable and efficient manner in which he discharged his duties as Commissary for the Company. It is with feelings of pride and pleasure that we have heard, on all sides, the praises bestowed upon the Fauquier Cavalry while on duty at Charleston."

The Southern medical students from Philadelphia, arrived at Richmond on Thursday and were received by the faculty and students of the medical college, the governor, and the Richmond Guards. There were also an immense throng of citizens. The procession marched to the governor's mansion, where the students were addressed by Governor Wise. Subsequently they were addressed by Professor Gibson at the college. After great enthusiasm was manifested, and there was a continual shower of applause and waving of handkerchiefs along the route.

For the past thirty days, Messrs. Crenshaw & Co., of Richmond, have been sustaining losses in coffee which have probably amounted to five hundred pounds. Discovering the loss a few days since, they set to work to detect the robbers, and soon learned that two servants in their employ, aided by Dick and Cyrus, in the service of Dunlop, Moncreux & Co., were the thieves—that their servants probably forced the cellar door and passed the coffee out to Dick and Cyrus, who disposed of it. The parties are all under arrest.

The Lexington Gazette in noticing the appearance of Small Pox in that place says: "When first discovered there were five cases only. One of these has died, three have recovered and the remaining one is still in a critical condition. Seven houses are in quarantine, and including the first five, there have been some eighteen or twenty cases in all. We have heard of no new cases since Monday."

On Friday night last week, the mail stage was on its way from Staunton to Harrisonburg, it was upset by the horses running off, injuring several passengers, but fortunately, not very seriously. Mr. O. C. Sterling, of Harrisonburg, one of the passengers, had a wound inflicted on the left side of his head, just above the forehead, about two inches in length, but without fracturing the skull.

On Wednesday, 14th inst., Mr. Samuel Vines was found dead in the bellows house at the Iron Works, near Luray, Page Co. It is supposed that the victim of the bellows caught his head, one of which was horribly mangled. Mr. V. was a poor man, and leaves a wife and one child to mourn his loss.

The speaker read in the House of Delegates, a letter from Norfolk, inviting the House, its officers, and the members of the press on the floor, to spend their Christmas in Norfolk, an invitation which that hospitable city always extends to the Legislature.

Hon. T. C. Flournoy, in a speech to the citizens of Pittsylvania county, at Chatham last Monday, paid a graceful compliment to the present Executive of Virginia, Mr. Flournoy, it will be recollected, was the candidate of the Opposition over whom Gov. Wise was elected.

One of the most intelligent and estimable ladies of Virginia, writes the Richmond Dispatch a letter, enclosing a subscription paper, to raise a sum of money to buy a service of plate, to be presented to Gov. Wise, and enclosing descriptions in behalf of herself and daughter.

Mr. D. M. Pattie, of Warrenton, was thrown from a buggy, in Baltimore, one day last week, which resulted in the breaking of one of his legs. He reached Warrenton on Friday, and is, we are glad to hear, improving.

A young lady, named Miss Bare, fell from her horse and was drowned, in attempting to ford Buffalo creek, in Rockbridge county, on Saturday last. Her body was recovered.

Gov. Wise left Richmond on Friday morning, in the Norfolk steamer, en route for Accomac. The Governor will not be able to return to Richmond before the close of his term of office.

Dr. Powhatan B. Cabell, formerly a well-known physician of Danville, Va., died recently at Florence, Alabama.

The Harper's Ferry Affair.

As mentioned in our report of the Legislative proceeding, in yesterday's Gazette, a communication was received from the Governor, on Wednesday, in response to the resolution of the House of Delegates of Dec. 19th, asking information relative to the affair at Harper's Ferry. The Governor says he found in the case ample authority for his action, and the necessity of the case required that he should exercise it. He gives in detail the mode adopted to meet the exigencies of the occasion. What he did beside arresting and guarding old Brown and his companions, was with a view "to assure our border people of their safety and defence, and to admonish the people of other States and their authorities that we were not to be invaded with impunity." He says he found the militia wholly disorganized, and the transportation and equipment of troops difficult, irregular and costly. Under the circumstances he did the best in his power. Much of the cost to be attributed to a want of system regulated by law, which he has asked for without avail, and in the absence of which he was called on to act for the honor, safety and welfare of the Commonwealth. The forces have been kept under arms at Charleston since Oct. 17, varying in numbers from one or two hundred to sixteen hundred at times. They have been reduced now from 1,000 men to a mere guard; but the latter will be continued until the remaining prisoners are disposed of according to law. The Governor says that he cannot answer the resolution of the House calling for amount of cost, &c., because the accounts could not be audited before his term of office expired.

Mr. Taliaferro will soon return to the capital with the proper vouchers, &c., when the means will be afforded of making up the statement, which will be sent in as soon as completed. The Governor adds in conclusion: "I trust to the liberality and justice of the Executive officers and the Legislature not to allow the patriotic men and officers, who have come so promptly at their country's call, to suffer for the want of pay for reason of error of mine. I took the whole responsibility of the call, and they met it like men on whom the State can rely. If the State has to pay more money than she ought to have paid, let the balance fall upon me, and not upon the troops. Had it been necessary, I should have incurred even more expensiveness than has yet been incurred under other orders. My chief regret was that I was far beyond the aid and guard of the prisoners, John Brown and his accomplices."

New Books from D. Appleton & Co.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.

Books for the Times.—Havard's Bell—Life and Light of Infancy; Tactics for the Exercise and Management of Troops; Tactics for the Light Infantry or Rifleman, prepared under the direction of the War Department, by Bravet Lieutenant Colonel W. J. Hardie, in two volumes, $1.20. Scott's Tactics—The system of Tactics, adopted by the Militia of the United States, prepared by General Winfield Scott, the complete edition, in three volumes, price $2.50; the Abridgement, 75 cents.

Three Volumes—First Part, School of the Troop; of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Dismounted. Second Part, School of the Troop, of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Mounted. Published by order of the War Department, in two volumes, price $2, for sale by ROBT. BELL, Dec. 24.

BROWN'S FROTHS for Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., for sale by HENRY COOK & CO., Dec. 24.

NEW BOOKS FROM D. APPLETON & CO.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.

Books for the Times.—Havard's Bell—Life and Light of Infancy; Tactics for the Exercise and Management of Troops; Tactics for the Light Infantry or Rifleman, prepared under the direction of the War Department, by Bravet Lieutenant Colonel W. J. Hardie, in two volumes, $1.20. Scott's Tactics—The system of Tactics, adopted by the Militia of the United States, prepared by General Winfield Scott, the complete edition, in three volumes, price $2.50; the Abridgement, 75 cents.

Three Volumes—First Part, School of the Troop; of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Dismounted. Second Part, School of the Troop, of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Mounted. Published by order of the War Department, in two volumes, price $2, for sale by ROBT. BELL, Dec. 24.

BROWN'S FROTHS for Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., for sale by HENRY COOK & CO., Dec. 24.

NEW BOOKS FROM D. APPLETON & CO.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.

Books for the Times.—Havard's Bell—Life and Light of Infancy; Tactics for the Exercise and Management of Troops; Tactics for the Light Infantry or Rifleman, prepared under the direction of the War Department, by Bravet Lieutenant Colonel W. J. Hardie, in two volumes, $1.20. Scott's Tactics—The system of Tactics, adopted by the Militia of the United States, prepared by General Winfield Scott, the complete edition, in three volumes, price $2.50; the Abridgement, 75 cents.

Three Volumes—First Part, School of the Troop; of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Dismounted. Second Part, School of the Troop, of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Mounted. Published by order of the War Department, in two volumes, price $2, for sale by ROBT. BELL, Dec. 24.

BROWN'S FROTHS for Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., for sale by HENRY COOK & CO., Dec. 24.

NEW BOOKS FROM D. APPLETON & CO.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.

Books for the Times.—Havard's Bell—Life and Light of Infancy; Tactics for the Exercise and Management of Troops; Tactics for the Light Infantry or Rifleman, prepared under the direction of the War Department, by Bravet Lieutenant Colonel W. J. Hardie, in two volumes, $1.20. Scott's Tactics—The system of Tactics, adopted by the Militia of the United States, prepared by General Winfield Scott, the complete edition, in three volumes, price $2.50; the Abridgement, 75 cents.

Three Volumes—First Part, School of the Troop; of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Dismounted. Second Part, School of the Troop, of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Mounted. Published by order of the War Department, in two volumes, price $2, for sale by ROBT. BELL, Dec. 24.

BROWN'S FROTHS for Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., for sale by HENRY COOK & CO., Dec. 24.

NEW BOOKS FROM D. APPLETON & CO.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.

Books for the Times.—Havard's Bell—Life and Light of Infancy; Tactics for the Exercise and Management of Troops; Tactics for the Light Infantry or Rifleman, prepared under the direction of the War Department, by Bravet Lieutenant Colonel W. J. Hardie, in two volumes, $1.20. Scott's Tactics—The system of Tactics, adopted by the Militia of the United States, prepared by General Winfield Scott, the complete edition, in three volumes, price $2.50; the Abridgement, 75 cents.

Three Volumes—First Part, School of the Troop; of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Dismounted. Second Part, School of the Troop, of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Mounted. Published by order of the War Department, in two volumes, price $2, for sale by ROBT. BELL, Dec. 24.

BROWN'S FROTHS for Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., for sale by HENRY COOK & CO., Dec. 24.

NEW BOOKS FROM D. APPLETON & CO.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.

Books for the Times.—Havard's Bell—Life and Light of Infancy; Tactics for the Exercise and Management of Troops; Tactics for the Light Infantry or Rifleman, prepared under the direction of the War Department, by Bravet Lieutenant Colonel W. J. Hardie, in two volumes, $1.20. Scott's Tactics—The system of Tactics, adopted by the Militia of the United States, prepared by General Winfield Scott, the complete edition, in three volumes, price $2.50; the Abridgement, 75 cents.

Three Volumes—First Part, School of the Troop; of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Dismounted. Second Part, School of the Troop, of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Mounted. Published by order of the War Department, in two volumes, price $2, for sale by ROBT. BELL, Dec. 24.

BROWN'S FROTHS for Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., for sale by HENRY COOK & CO., Dec. 24.

NEW BOOKS FROM D. APPLETON & CO.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.

Books for the Times.—Havard's Bell—Life and Light of Infancy; Tactics for the Exercise and Management of Troops; Tactics for the Light Infantry or Rifleman, prepared under the direction of the War Department, by Bravet Lieutenant Colonel W. J. Hardie, in two volumes, $1.20. Scott's Tactics—The system of Tactics, adopted by the Militia of the United States, prepared by General Winfield Scott, the complete edition, in three volumes, price $2.50; the Abridgement, 75 cents.

Three Volumes—First Part, School of the Troop; of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Dismounted. Second Part, School of the Troop, of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Mounted. Published by order of the War Department, in two volumes, price $2, for sale by ROBT. BELL, Dec. 24.

BROWN'S FROTHS for Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., for sale by HENRY COOK & CO., Dec. 24.

NEW BOOKS FROM D. APPLETON & CO.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.

Books for the Times.—Havard's Bell—Life and Light of Infancy; Tactics for the Exercise and Management of Troops; Tactics for the Light Infantry or Rifleman, prepared under the direction of the War Department, by Bravet Lieutenant Colonel W. J. Hardie, in two volumes, $1.20. Scott's Tactics—The system of Tactics, adopted by the Militia of the United States, prepared by General Winfield Scott, the complete edition, in three volumes, price $2.50; the Abridgement, 75 cents.

Three Volumes—First Part, School of the Troop; of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Dismounted. Second Part, School of the Troop, of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Mounted. Published by order of the War Department, in two volumes, price $2, for sale by ROBT. BELL, Dec. 24.

BROWN'S FROTHS for Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., for sale by HENRY COOK & CO., Dec. 24.

NEW BOOKS FROM D. APPLETON & CO.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.

Books for the Times.—Havard's Bell—Life and Light of Infancy; Tactics for the Exercise and Management of Troops; Tactics for the Light Infantry or Rifleman, prepared under the direction of the War Department, by Bravet Lieutenant Colonel W. J. Hardie, in two volumes, $1.20. Scott's Tactics—The system of Tactics, adopted by the Militia of the United States, prepared by General Winfield Scott, the complete edition, in three volumes, price $2.50; the Abridgement, 75 cents.

Three Volumes—First Part, School of the Troop; of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Dismounted. Second Part, School of the Troop, of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Mounted. Published by order of the War Department, in two volumes, price $2, for sale by ROBT. BELL, Dec. 24.

BROWN'S FROTHS for Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., for sale by HENRY COOK & CO., Dec. 24.

NEW BOOKS FROM D. APPLETON & CO.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.

Books for the Times.—Havard's Bell—Life and Light of Infancy; Tactics for the Exercise and Management of Troops; Tactics for the Light Infantry or Rifleman, prepared under the direction of the War Department, by Bravet Lieutenant Colonel W. J. Hardie, in two volumes, $1.20. Scott's Tactics—The system of Tactics, adopted by the Militia of the United States, prepared by General Winfield Scott, the complete edition, in three volumes, price $2.50; the Abridgement, 75 cents.

Three Volumes—First Part, School of the Troop; of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Dismounted. Second Part, School of the Troop, of the Platoon and of the Squadron, Mounted. Published by order of the War Department, in two volumes, price $2, for sale by ROBT. BELL, Dec. 24.

BROWN'S FROTHS for Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., for sale by HENRY COOK & CO., Dec. 24.

NEW BOOKS FROM D. APPLETON & CO.

Evenings at the Microscope, or Researches among the minute Organisms, and forms of Annual Life, by Philip Henry Gosse, F.R.S., price $1.50. The Professor at the Breakfast Table, with the story of Iris, by Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," $1. Great Facts, a popular history and description of all the remarkable inventions during the present century, by Prof. C. Baskwell, author of "Philosophical Conversations," &c., illustrated with engravings, $1.

Prince Charles, the Young Cavalier, by Meredith Jones, with eight illustrations, 75c. Robert Vaughan's Victory, or How to Conquer, by Helen Wall Person, illustrated by the author, 50c. The story of the "Night Caps," told to Charles, by the author of "Night Caps," 50c. and Baby Night Caps, by the same author, 50c.

New Novels from Henry B. Ashmead—Illustrated Book of Natural History, in four parts, 20c. each; Mother Goose's Chimes, Rhymes, and Melodies, 25c.; The old Nurse's Library, 12 parts, 25c. each, not published, and for sale by W. W. Adams.